January goes, February runs away, March leaves !

At the opening ceremony of the third term, I spoke about the "Year of the Snake." Although snakes aren't very popular, they are said to bring good fortune, and the Year of the Snake is apparently the year when the results of all the hard work that everyone has done will start to come.

I also told them, "January goes, February runs, March leaves." If we just go through each day aimlessly, the third term will be over in no time. At school, I want to make sure that the children have nothing left they wanted to do in the remaining three months.

It's January, and we've seen an increase in absences due to illness, especially fevers. We've also talked to the children about wearing masks when necessary. Depending on the children's health conditions, they may be required to wear masks inside school. I think it's important to keep in mind the infection prevention tips we learned during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Please continue to gargle, wash your hands thoroughly, and wear a mask when necessary.

9日（木）校内書初大会

They received instruction last month, practiced at home during the winter break, and finally this day came. The third graders and above practiced in the gymnasium, while the younger students practiced in the classrooms. Everyone worked hard. The works were displayed in the hallways of each classroom, and a calligraphy exhibition was held. For those who were too busy to come to the school, we also streamed it on YouTube.

17日（金）授業研究会

In order to improve teaching skills, the school holds lesson study meetings several times a year. This time, Japanese language, mathematics, and special needs education classes were held in four classes. Every class uses tablets for learning. They are not used to finding answers, but to think and exchange opinions. Even first graders are able to use them smoothly. They are quick to pick up on things they like and are interested in.

21日（火）国立歴史民俗博物館

This was the last field trip for 6th graders. In addition to just observing, we also had many experiences. We practiced writing our names in old kanji at the old school, Terakoya. We also had the opportunity to try completing a model of excavated pottery that had been torn apart. For lunch, we had our last bento lunch with our friends in elementary school. The weather was good and everyone seemed to be having a good time. I think we made some good memories.

28日（火）歯科健康教育

This time, fifth graders received dental health education. One health goal is to "have 20 of your own teeth left at age 80." It is important to always be able to chew and eat well with your own teeth. To check whether they are brushing properly, they apply red chemicals. If they are not brushed properly, the stains will turn red. Some children even ended up with stains completely red. Let's learn how to brush properly!

School gate rules

The school has four gates: the main gate, staff gates (front and back), and the back gate. All gates are supposed to be closed to ensure the safety of children except during school hours.

Each gate has a rule. Let's make sure that all adults follow the rules so that children can have a safe school life.

There are parents who drop their children off at the employee gate during school hours. This may cause an accident with the car of a child or staff member on their way to school. It is prohibited to drop off children at the employee gate.

Main gate

Only for walking and bicycles.
Car traffic is prohibited.

Employee gate (back) Car only

Normally, children and guardians do not use.

Employee gate (front) Car only

It must not be used for picking up and dropping off children or when the gymnasium is open to the public. (Excluding pick-ups due to sickness etc.)

Back gate (Gakudo side)

It is used for picking up and dropping off students, school children, and opening the gymnasium. Please follow the instructions of the Gakudo on Saturdays and during summer and winter vacations.
